for the IPMA International Project
Excellence Award 2011

Dear Sir/Madam,

The International Project Management Association (IPMA) is a world leading non-profit association promoting project management. IPMA constitutes of 45 national project management associations.

The Association actively promotes project management to businesses and organisations around the world. It certifies project managers, award successful project teams and researchers, and provides a number of project management publications.

In order to rise project management skills and recognise the best managed projects in the world, IPMA introduced the IPMA International Project Excellence Award. The Award identifies examples of excellent project management and acknowledges innovative projects. The Award is based on Project Excellence Model which evaluates project achievement and improves project management.

By participating to the Award process you will receive an in depth analysis of your project by experienced assessors resulting in a comprehensive feedback on all areas of project management to identify your strengths as well as areas for improvement. In addition, to put your project forward for the Award will offer a unique opportunity to benchmark your project against other world class projects with the possibility to receive international recognition for your project achievements.

Enclose you will find a copy of the invitation brochure. The brochure outlines the basic structure of the Project Excellence Model and gives information regarding the application procedure including the time schedule and entry criteria.

The full description of the IPMA Project Excellence Model is available upon request from Award Office: award@ipma.ch

I would like to invite you to apply for IPMA International Project Excellence Award 2011.

Yours sincerely,

Mary Koutintcheva

Chairman of IPMA Award
